At 12 o'clock, m, Mr. Hanes, the Private Secretary to the Governor, appeared and presented the following message, which was read, and on motion of Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, six hundred copies of the Message, with accompanying documents, were ordered to be printed:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, N. C., RALEIGH, October 3d, 1865.

Gentlemen of the Convention:

I do not deem it my duty, under the circumstances, to address you a formal and elaborate message in relation to public affairs. Your duties are too plain to require suggestions from me, and I entertain no doubt these duties will be promptly and faithfully performed. North Carolina attempted, in May, 1861, to separate herself from the Federal Union. This attempt involved her, with other slaveholding States, in a protracted and disastrious war, the result of which was a vast expenditure of blood and treasure on her part, and the practical abolition of domestic slavery. She entered the war as a slave-holding State, and she emerged from it a non-slaveholding State. In other respects, so far as her existence as a State and her rights as a State are concerned, she has undergone no change. The President of the United States wisely determined that her existence as a State should not be extinguished, but that under the clause of the Federal Constitution which 'guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government," her people, in Convention assembled, might so alter and amend their Constitution, and adopt such measures as would restore the State to her Constitutional relations to the Federal government, and thus restore once more to the people thereof the immeasurable benefits and blessings of the Union.

I allow me to congratulate you, gentlemen, upon the favorable circumstances which surround you, while engaged in this great work of restoring the State to her proper and natural position. It is my firm belief that the policy of the President in this respect, which is as wise as liberal, and as just as the Constitution itself, will be approved by the great body of the people of the United States; and that the period is not distant, if we are true to ourselves, and properly regardful of the reasonable expectations of our friends in other States, when Senators and Representatives will resume their seats in Congress, and when our State will enjoy, in common with the other States, the protection of just laws under the constitution of our fathers. In the touching language of your most worthy presiding officer, "we are at home. Let painful reflections upon our late separation and pleasant memories of our early union, retrace our footsteps towards the old mansion, that we may clasp hard again the hand of Friendship which stands at the door; and sheltered by the old homestead which was built upon a rock, and has weathered the storm, enjoy together the long bright future which is before us."

I take it for granted, gentlemen, that you will insert in the Constitution a provision forever abolishing slavery and involuntary servitude in North Carolina; and that you will submit the Constitution, when altered and amended, to the people of the State at the ballot box for their ratification or rejection. I do not doubt that the Constitution, when thus altered and amended, will be ratified by the vast majority of the people.

I herewith the Report of Jonathan Worth, Esq., Treasurer, setting forth the State debt, the condition of the Sinking Fund, and also a general view of the finances both at home and abroad. Also, Reports from the Banks and Railroad Companies, showing their condition; and Reports from the Superintendent of the Insane Asylum and the Principal of the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, containing statements of the condition of these institutions I also send herewith a Report from the Public Treasurer in relation to the State property; to which, with the other Reports referred to, I invite your careful attention.

It will afford me pleasure, gentlemen, to furnish you any information in my possession which you may desire; and I beg you to be assured that I will be ready at all times to co-operate with you in such measures as may be deemed essential to promote harmony among our people, and to restore the State, at the earliest practicable period, to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government.

I have the honor to be, with much respect,

Your obedient servant,
W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

Mr. Caldwell of Guildford, moved that the reading of the accompanying documents be dispensed with. Adopted.

Mr. McGehee moved to reconsider this motion, as in order for it he remarked, he did not intend to press the reading of the Treasurer's report, and moved a reconsideration in order that, that very important report might be read. The motion was reconsidered and the report was read.

Mr. G. W. Logan offered the following resolution which lies over under the rules.

Resolved, That until otherwise ordered this Convention shall hold daily sessions (Sundays excepted), meeting at 10 a. m., and adjourning at least at 3 p. m.

Mr. Conigland, the following:

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to communicate to this Convention information as to the specie due at the time when issued of the bonds and Treasury notes issued by the State, in aid of the late rebellion against the government of the United States.

On motion of Mr. Settle, the Convention adjourned to Wednesday 11 o'clock.

JOHN H. SURRATT AT MONTREAL.—The New York Commercial Advertiser revives the report that John H. Surratt, the accomplice of Booth, is in Montreal. It says:

A Portland, Me., merchant saw John H. Surratt in Montreal, a week ago to-day; that he has been concealed there for some time, and on one occasion when the detectives were in close pursuit, he was secreted under an altar of one of the churches, in was believed at Montreal, last week. He was to take passage for England on the steamer St. George, to sail on Friday last.

MORE PROPHETS.—Prophets—false prophets—have generally been plenty in the world. There has not been a century probably since the beginning of our era which has not witnessed the rise and fall of one or more of the tribe. In the present century they seem to be rather more numerous than they have ever been before. We have had Joe Smith and Miller and Matthias, and we know not how many more within the recollection of the present generation A new one has just turned up in the person of a Capt. W. A. Baker, of the British Army, an officer of the Royal Bombay Engineers, who has just published a book of prophecies, in which he has told the "day and the hour" of the final destruction of all things and the chief events that are to precede it. It is fixed, he says, for the hour of sunset, on the 20th of September, 1878. Here are the dates of some preceding events:

On the 9th of October, 1867, Queen Victoria will retire, and the Prince of Wales be made Prince Regent.

In 1869 and '70, Austria will seize Greece and some minor German States, and Russia will seize on Turkey.

On the 27th of October, 1871, Russia and Austria will combine to make war on France; and on the same day, perhaps, Napoleon will sign a covenant with the Jews.

On the 3d of June, 1872, the Emperor of Russia will be killed in Palestine, on the field of battle, and Napoleon will become supreme monarch, all the kingdoms of the old Roman earth falling to him, Britain excepted.

On the 10th of March, 1875, the Jews will be restored to Jerusalem and the Holy Land.

On the 9th of April, 1875, Anti-Christ (who is explained as Napoleon III) will appear and be fully revealed.

About the first of September, 1876, the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the heavens; and at sunset, as we have said, on the 20th of September, 1878, Christ will be seen descending on Mount Olive.

Captain Baker professes to have discovered two most important events which are to occur in quick succession after the power of Napoleon is consolidated but before his appearance as Anti-Christ. 1st. The resurrection of the just, immediately on the expiration of the six thousand years of the world which, according to his chronology, will be December 6, 1874. This will be invisible to the living, he thinks, and naively remarks, "I, therefore, do not expect my opinion can ever be proved right, nor can it ever be proved wrong." 2d. The translation of the saints from earth to heaven, which is to take place some little time before dawn on the 25th of January, 1875. This, like their resurrection, will be also invisible, "and, therefore," says the Captain, "we shall never know in this life whether such is precisely the case or not." On the principle of the old adage that "seeing is believing," the learned author is not likely to make many converts.

PROFITS OF EMANCIPATION.—There is something very significant in the following:

"The Charleston (S. C.) News says that the South has really lost nothing by emancipation, for while the value of the slaves before the war belonged to their masters, now it belongs to the freedmen who own themselves, and hence there is, as far as slave property is concerned just as much wealth in those States as ever there was. The negro owns himself.

It is a self-evident proposition that whether the Southern planter own their laborers, or whether the laborers own themselves, the same amount of property exists in the country. If a Southern planter was willing to pay a thousand dollars for a negro, it must have been because the negro could be made to produce by his labor a satisfactory return on the thousand dollars paid for him.

Now, is it likely that a negro will produce less when working for himself than when working under compulsion for another? If he produces more when free than when a slave, the wealth of the country is increased to the extent of the amount on which the increased production represents the average return received by the capital of the country. For example if a negro slave, worth one thousand dollars, produced annually one hundred and fifty dollars for his master, and the same man, when free, produces two hundred dollars for himself, his relative value when a freedman is $1,333.

A New Orleans paper says one of the distinguished Major Generals in the Confederate service from this State is, we learn, about to take charge of the construction and repair of the wharves for one of the contractors with the city. Two Brigadiers have already secured places in the Commercial Express company One Brigadier is prosperously engaged in the business of boss drayman. There are other Generals who are spoken of as civil engineers on our railroads. Almost every store has a Colonel or Major. There are three distinguished Colonels extensively engaged in the auction business. One Colonel, who has heretofore directed his big guns with great skill and heroism in some of the fiercest battles of the war, is now selling bale rope and bagging. Another one of Stonewall Jackson's favorite regimental commanders is pressing cotton as vigorously as he pressed Gen. Banks' rear at Winchester.

General Mussey, the President's private Secretary, has been the recipient of a handsome silver medal from the hands of Major General Butler. It is a fac simile of those awarded to officers and soldiers, and is about the size of a Spanish dollar. On one side two negroes are represented as charging a cannon frowning from a battlement. The motto above is "Ferre iis Libertas Pervenient;" beneath the words "U. S. colored troops." On the opposite side, encircling a wreath of oak leaves, are the words "Campaign before Richmond," and around the wreath the words "Distinguished for Courage." The pin securing the medal, also of silver, represents an oak leaf, bearing the inscription "The Army of the James." A splendid silk red, white and blue ribbon is connected with the medal, which is enclosed in a rich Turkey morocco case.

THE SWEET SOUTH WIND—breathing o'er beds of violets, is not more fragrant than SOZODONT. And the aroma which it exales, communicates itself to the breaths of all who use this marvelous dentifrice, white teeth, ruddy gums, a sweet mouth, and the certainty of enjoying these desirables in perpetuity, are among the blessings derived from the use of SOZODONT.

A northern paper, speaking of the arrest of idle negroes in Georgia by the military authorities, approves of the proceeding, but thinks the rule ought to apply to whites as well, for the reason that the whites cannot live without work any more than the blacks. Some sense in that.

Ex-Governor Joe Brown, of Georgia, is about to become a citizen of Atlanta.

EX-CONFEDERATE OFFICERS NORTH.—A letter from New York says:

"It is astonishing to see the facility with which some of our Southern countrymen, up to their eyes and ears in the recent rebellion, are betaking themselves to occupations to which they had previously been entire strangers. A Mississippian, who acted as an aid to General Pemberton at the siege of Vicksburg, has opened a broker's office in Hanover street, and is out in a card soliciting esbecially the patronage of his New Orleans, Mobile and Texas friends. A little farther down the same street, on the other side of the way, an ex-rebel captain, who served under Ewell, is filling a subordinate clerkship in a cotton broker's counting-room. One of General Lee's staff is negotiating for the lease of a drinking saloon and ten-pin alley on Broadway, near Amity street. One of Magruder's adjutants has gone into the wholesale produce business at Washington Market. General Mansfield Lovell, who undertook to defend New Orleans, is going to open a law office in Nassau street. In Bond street there are at least three large boarding-houses which are kept by the widows of rebel officers who fell in battle in the Carolinas. In the Eighth avenue, near Sixteenth street, a pardoned ex-clerk in the rebel Treasury Department is selling cigars, and within a stone's throw of his shop is a rebel naval officer, who led the memorable assault on the Harriet Lane at Galveston. In the newspaper offices, likewise, may be found sundry persons who this time last year were 'firing the Southern heart.'"

The Mobile Advertiser, of the 15th inst., gives the following important information in regard to the question of labor supply for the South:

COOLIES AS FARM AND HOUSE SERVANTS.—We received a call yesterday from Capt. Thomas H. Boyle, formerly of the ship Ticonderoga, and for some time engaged in transporting Coolies to Havana. He is well acquainted with these people and believes they will afford the best and cheapest labor in the world. He proposes on guarantee payment of their passage money, to bring here first from Cuba, where their contracts are about expiring, and afterwards from China, such numbers as may be required.

They make good plantation hands, and are unsurpassed as house servants. They are, of course, free, and can be hired for from $4 to $6 per month, and require to be furnished board and four suits of clothing a year.

Captain Boyle can be seen at the office of Marsten, Maury & Shannon, and will take pleasure in giving any information that may be desired on this interesting subject. Planters and others would do well to give this matter early consideration.

NEGRO TROOPS—HOW THEY GOT THEIR REPUTATION.—General Thomas Benton, the soldier's candidate for Governor in Iowa, in a late speech, after alluding to the capture of a battery by his men, at the battle of Jenkins' Ferry, Arkansas, says:

"What was the indignation of his men when they saw in the printed letters of these correspondents a glowing account of the bravery of the colored troops in storming this battery, and ignoring the very existence of his regiment, who really captured it, by not even mentioning its presence there. But this indignation was still further increased, when, by some one's orders, these very guns were sent up to St. Louis, and exhibited there at a soldiers' fair, with certain battle-flags, as trophies of the bravery of certain colored troops, who were said to have stormed and taken them at the battle of Jenkins' Ferry, when, in fact, there were no battle-flags there, and the whole work of taking the guns was done by his own regiment, which was not even mentioned."

A Savannah letter to the Baltimore Gazette says:

A wedding was celebrated lately which excited some remark. The contracting parties were a white officer, first Lieutenant in a negro regiment, and a colored damsel, formerly a servant in a respectable family. The marriage ceremony was performed with great pomp in one of the colored Baptist churches, and the happy pair immediately left for New York on a bridal tour.

THE FREEDMEN'S CONVENTION.—The Freedmen's Convention met yesterday morning according to adjournment. After religious services, the minutes were read and approved. Considerable time was consumed in debating a resolution relative to colored teachers and preachers. It was finally laid on the table. A committee was appointed to wait on Gen. Kuger, the commandant of the department, and get from him certificates which will secure those members of the Convention who fear it, protection, from violence on their return.

A State Equal Rights League was formed by the adoption of a constitution and election of officers. The constitution appoints the time for the yearly meeting of the League on the first Tuesday of October. In the evening Mr. Fish, superintendent of the Freedmen's schools in the State, addressed the convention, advising them of the objects and duties of his office. The Convention adjourned sine die.

THE FINE ARTS.—The members of the Convention and others visiting the city, will find the elegant Photographic and Daguerrean gallery of J. W. Watson, Esq., on Fayetteville street, one of the real attractions of Raleigh Mr. Watson has bought out Mr. Hunt, the former proprietor, and with new stock and material is now prepared to execute pictures of all sizes and descriptions in the most perfect and elegant style. He has been for many years engaged in the business, understands it thoroughly, and we will warrant all who call on him entire satisfaction. We have known Mr. Watson for a number of years, and we know him to be a most estimable gentleman as well as an excellent artist. A view of the splendid specimens of art to be found in his rooms will well repay a visit.

SATTERLEE, LYON & Co., 331 Pearl street, New York, will pay particular attention to all Naval Stores, Cotton and other produce consigned to them. They also manufacture paper for printing purposes, and deal in all kinds of paper. We cheerfully recommend this firm to our people.

DAILY JOURNAL.—The Farmer's, Miner's and Mechanic's Journal, Mr. L. N. Keith proprietor, made its appearance Tuesday. It is a neat sheet of eight pages and filled with interesting matter. This is issued as a specimen number, but it is proposed to commence the regular issue of daily, weekly and semi-weekly editions about the 1st of January. We wish the enterprise success.

OVER THE WIRES.—We are now getting the telegraphic reports of the American Press Association, and shall be thus enabled to give the latest news from all quarters of the globe. No pains or expense will be spared to make the PROGRESS equal to the best journals published in the country.

J. N.—the philosopher and orator—is in town, and will address the populace at the capitol, to-night. "J. N." does his own talking and those who want to hear should go early. All turn out and hear the heroic martyr for truth. Ladies especially invited.

THE moon changes, quarters and fulls as usual, and yet there is no rain. The dust in our streets is almost suffocating, and the best of the county mills can scarcely turn a wheel. And we believe the drought is general.

THINGS are growing remarkably quiet in and around this goodly City—not an "outrage" we believe for forty eight hours. The country people continue to come to market as usual.

SUCH of the members of the Convention as want new clothes, dry goods, shoes, hats, coats or anything of the kind, will do well to examine the advertising columns of the PROGRESS before buying.

PRIZE FIGHT.—We understand that the fancy muscle men of this city, intend in a few days, bringing into the ring, two light weight competitors for a five hundred dollar purse.

MEMBERS of the Convention who wish the PROGRESS placed on their desks, can be accommodated by leaving their names at our counting room.

As the two standard articles, cotton and gold, are advancing in the Northern markets, corresponding advances may be looked for here.

SHEPHERD'S STORE, north side Market Square, offers many attractions. See his advertisement and go early.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 4, 1865.

The Convention.

The Convention was in session but about two hours yesterday, and beyond the appointment of a committee of nine to report subject matters for the consideration of the body, there was nothing of importance done. This committee consists of Messrs. B. F. Moore, of Wake, P. H. Winston, of Franklin, Wm. Eaton, Jr., of Warren, Alfred Dockery, of Richmond, M. E. Manly, of Craven, S. F. Phillips, of Orange, W. P. Bynum, of Lincoln, D. D. Ferebee, of Camden, and W. A. Wright, of New Hanover.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, offered a resolution calling upon the President of the Convention to procure a national flag to be hoisted over the capitol during the sitting of the Convention.

Mr. Clark offered a resolution empowering the President of the Convention to admit reporters for the press, not to exceed five, and to assign them suitable places in the hall. We hope this resolution will not pass if it is to exclude any of the large number of reporters here from a distance to report the proceedings of the Convention. We learn that there are reporters here from Philadelphia, New York, Cincinnati, and probably other places, and should the Convention only admit five in all, some of them would have to be excluded. We have no idea that the gentleman who introduced the resolution intended to exclude any portion of the press, and we allude to the matter in no unkindness to him. We doubt not but he will withdraw the motion or modify it when he looks at the matter in its true light.

At 12 o'clock a communication was received from the Governor which was read and with the accompanying documents ordered to be printed. The message of the Governor is short but plain and eminently practical. The Governor assures the members of the Convention of his readiness to co-operate with them in any way that may be in his power to restore the State to the Union and to secure the blessings of civil law and social order for the people of the State. He tells them their duties are too plain to require instruction or advice from him, and that he has an abiding faith that the work before them will be promptly performed.

After the reading of the message and the Treasurer's report, and the transaction of other business of no special importance, the Convention adjourned to meet to-day at 10 o'clock.

So far we think the general signs are good, the feeling seems to be excellent, all appear to desire that the objects for which they have met be soon accomplished, and the people, outside the Convention, are hopeful.

Letter from the Attorney General---The President's Views.

The people of Virginia seem determined to send no objectionable man to Congress if they can help it. As fast as it is found that the candidates cannot take the oath, they are set aside, for it seems to be well understood there that no one who cannot take the oath will have any chance of getting in. We find the following in the Charlottesville Chronicle of a late date:

"Some time since a number of gentlemen in this place wrote to the President, stating that they were sincerely desirous to carry out his views in casting their votes at the coming Congressional election, regarding him as sympathizing with the situation of the Southern people, and informed as to the temper and feelings of the country generally. They therefore asked him directly the question, whether it is essential that we shall return men to Congress who are able to take the Test Oath? They stated that all three of the gentlemen running for Congress in this district were men who had been conservative and moderate, and friends of the Union, but that two of them could not take the Congressional oath. The answer of the President we lay before our readers. It is a plain answer. We now know distinctly the views of the President. Shall they be regarded?

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, September 23, 1865.

To Messrs. Thos. Wood, John L. Cochrane, and others, Charlottesville, Va:

GENTLEMEN: The President has referred to me your letter, dated Charlottesville, Va., September, 1865, and I am instructed by him to say that he has no more means of knowing what Congress may do in regard to the oath about which you inquire, than any other citizen. It is his earnest wish that loyal and true men, to whom no objections can be made, may be elected to Congress.

This is not an official letter, but a simple expression of individual opinion and wish.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES SPEED,
Attorney General.

Here it is. It is the President's earnest wish that loyal and true men, to whom no objection can be made, may be elected to Congress. And such is the wish of every member of government and citizen of the north who desires to see the southern States restored to the Union, for well do they all know that the test oath of 1862 will not be modified or repealed, and that no one will be allowed to take a seat in Congress who cannot take it.

Now let Congressional aspirants get a copy of the oath and, after making it a subject of thought and prayer, determine in their own consciences whether they can take it or not, for if they can not they may as well abandon the field to men who can. The Republican party, with a clear majority in both houses of Congress, will not repeal it to admit persons of doubtful loyalty into that body.

Address of the Freedmen.

The address of the Colored Convention, adopted on Wednesday and published by us yesterday, to the State Convention, is couched in good language, with facts plain as they are, is highly conservative and in all respects respectful to the whites or superior race; and we trust that the members of the State Convention will maturely consider their duties and obligations to this unfortunate race, and then act with wisdom, discretion and justice.

We have not attended any of the meetings of Convention, but learn that the proceedings have been marked by harmony, decorum and good feeling, and that there is an absence of everything like arrogance and defiance in the bearing and deportment of its members. We are glad of this for the sake of the blacks as well as for our own sake, for the two races have got to live here together, and it is better they should be friends than enemies. There are some blacks that want to live and consume without work, and some whites who would get their labor for nothing, but we have an abiding confidence that the great majority of both races mean to do right and act justly towards each other, and time will, we trust, so harmonize all things as to render the blacks and the whites entirely satisfied with the present condition of things.

We see nothing to object to in the address of the Freedmen, but, on the contrary, much to commend; and we doubt not but it will receive a respectful consideration at the hands of the State Convention.

A Lieutenant Governor.

The Standard and other papers are urging upon the Convention the creation of the office of Lieutenant Governor. We think, with the Western Democrat, that we can get along upon the old plan. That paper says:

"The Raleigh Standard advocates the creation of the office of Lieutenant Governor, and his election by the people. We would much prefer to see the number of offices diminished than increased. We have got along very well so far without a Lieutenant Governor, and we think we can do without one for the future. Now, while the people are heavily burdened with taxes, is no time to create more salaried offices. Let us cut down expenses rather than increase them. Not a dollar should be spent by the State more than is actually necessary. There is no great necessity for a Lieutenant Governor.

Letter from Hon. Kenneth Rayner.

RALEIGH, Oct. 2, 1865.

To the Editor of the "Progress":

Not until to-day had I either seen or heard of the article in the Progress of Sept. 27th, alluding to a letter, said to have been written by me "to a friend" in Washington. The article in question alludes to a dispatch from Washington to the New York Tribune, of the following import:

"Kenneth Rayner writes a letter from North Carolina to a friend in this city, in which he states, that unless the government compels the rebels to treat the freedmen with less cruelty, there will certainly be a rising of the negroes, and bloody retaliation there. He is preparing a letter for publication, in which he will give a full account of the true condition of affairs in the North State. Mr. Rayner's earnest efforts in the Fremont campaign in Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, will be remembered; and his consistent Unionism for the last four years, justifies the expectations of his many loyal friends throughout the country."

This is a mistake. I have written no such letter as the one thus spoken of. I wrote a letter, some weeks since, to an old Philadelphia friend, now in Washington; in which I attempted to describe to him the sad and impoverished condition of the South. But I said nothing of any cruelty with which the "freedmen" were treated; nor did I say anything which could be so construed.

The friend alluded to, suggested to me, in reply, the idea of having the letter published, and asking my consent to the same. I finally wrote to him, agreeing to its publication, if he considered it worthy of such notice.—As the letter may shortly appear, and as it contains and will set forth my views in regard to the war, its causes and results, I deem it unnecessary to say anything here in regard to the conclusion of the sentence in the above dispatch referred to. What is said of me, in connection with "the Fremont campaign," refers, I suppose, to my exertions in Pennsylvania and elsewhere in favor of Mr. Fillmore in 1856. With my sincere thanks for the kind terms in which you were pleased to speak of me, I am,

Yours, respectfully,
K. RAYNER.

We were pleased to see Hon. D. M. Barringer on the street yesterday. Mr. Barringer had his thigh bone broken several months ago, from which injury he suffered much pain and long confinement. He is able to go on crutches, however, and we trust he may soon entirely recover from his injuries.

W. Ames has leased a farm in Lenoir county for a term of five years, at the modest sum of five thousand a year. The owner of the land will do a good business, but we fear that Mr. Ames will find his experimenting with the free labor system rather expensive.

Judge Howard, of Edgecombe, R. P. Dick, of Guilford, and W. H. Harrison, of Wake, are detained from their seats in the Convention by sickness.

Dr. Peter Hines has returned to Newbern to resume the practice of medicine.

PUT HIS FOOT DOWN FIRMLY.—An exchange says:

"The President will not interfere with the action of the Southern bishops. They may unite with the Northern churches or not, as they please. In reply to the remonstrances of the Radicals, he stated that the Constitution was silent upon the subject.

The President does but very little to oblige or conciliate the gentlemen who hold loyalty and devotion to the African to be synonimous. They wished him to reduce the Southern States to territories, and he refused. They wished him to appoint provisional governors from the loyal States, and he refused. They can't get him to consent to anything which they regard as essential to the safety of the Union—League."

It is announced that the British war steamer Devastation has sailed from Panama in pursuit of the Anglo-rebel pirate Shenandoah. Our English cousins are evidently anxious to curtail, as much as possible, the bill of damages which their friend, Captain Waddell, is running up against them.—Would not our trans-Atlantic friends have shown more wisdom by keeping the Shenandoah at home, for service off the coast of Ireland?

The Rebel General Forest is running a saw mill in Mississippi.

Ed. Progress:—THE FOLLOWING IS

STRANGE BUT TRUE.

'Twas late last night that I was sitting, in my chamber, lonely, knitting,
Knitting on the same old stocking, I'd commenced before the war;
Knitting carefully, I was hearing—when methought I heard one stealing,
Stealing softly up the stairway, leading to my chamber door.

This I thought, and listened more.

Soon I heard a gentle knocking—hastily I dropped my stocking;
Dropped my knitting—the old stocking I commenced before the war.
Again, and louder, came the rapping—as tho' they thought that I was napping;
Me a napping? Knitting, napping? Me who never—"Ope the door."

This the voice said—"Ope the door!!"

"'Tis Sally's voice"—says I—"'tis Sally, and I know she's got some news,
And I'm powerful glad she's come too, for I most did have the blues.
"Sally," says I, "Sally, howdye?" "What's the news? Do have a chair?"
"Glorious news, my Peggy darling—glorious news from Market Square,"

"From Shepherd's Store in Market Square."

At Shepherd's Store, they've got new shoes—such bran new, laced up, tasseled beauties.
Morocco, kid, and patent leather—Congress gaiters, toe-tipped bootees.
Balmoral, Prunello and Creole. Mens and womens, boys and girls;
Such a sight it is to behold—they're the cheapest in the world.

The very cheapest in the world.

And Peggy, dear, they've got new hats—military and civilian.
All the style of Frenchy fashion—a la Emp'reur Maximillian.
And I told my husband, Johnny, "throw aside that rusty beaver."
"Go to Shepherd's—market square—get a hat you gay deceiver,

Get a hat, and burn your beaver."

Well, Peg—John went to market square—he's just got back—rigged up so gay,
A bran new suit from top to toe—and cheap as dirt, for ready pay:
And I advise you, Peggy darling—to give what cash you've got to spare,
To your dear Bobby in the morning—and send him straight to Market Square"

To Shepherd's Store, in Market Square.

"I'll do it, Sally dear"—says I—I'll send Bob early in the morn,
I'll send him straight to Shepherd's Store—I will as sure as I am born,
Good-bye, dear Sally! Must you go? Yes—good-bye, Peggy—now take care,
Be sure that Bob finds the right place—'tis SHEPHERD'S STORE, at Market Square.

We have a fine assortment of Ready-made Clothing—Boots and Shoes—Hats, &c., which we will sell at very low prices.

NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT OF THE CONdition of the N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Company will show that after all the vicissitudes of the war, the Company is still strong, and merits the continuance of the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed:

ASSETS.

Premium Notes liable to assessment,	$129,198
Bonds of solvent individuals,	23,004
		$152,202

LIABILITIES.

Losses allowed up to January 1, 1865,	$35,249
Excess of assets over liabilities		$116,953

To meet the above liabilities, the Directors have ordered the collection of the individual bonds, and an assessment of 20 per cent. on the premium notes, which should yield

Bonds,	$23,004
Assessments,	25,839
		$48,843
Losses,		35,249
An excess of,		$13,694

Sufficient to cover all deficiencies.

If the Company shall be patronized by the public as before the war, there will be the annual profits in cash and premium notes which may be added to the assets now in hand, for the payment of liabilities.

Nearly all the above liabilities would have been extinguished but for the refusal of claimants to receive the currency in circulation at the time of the losses. They cannot reasonably complain of some delay. It will be remembered that the premium notes are the accumulations of notes given by insurers for one-half their annual premiums, which the Company had the right to require to be paid in cash. On the face of the note the insurer promises to pay whenever requested by the Directors, and all payments on assessments will be so much added to the sum insured, by diminishing to that amount the premium note to be deducted in case of loss. Many insurers pay the whole premium in cash as a matter of choice. It is believed that the losses may be paid by the first instalment of ten per cent added to the contemplated profits; but it is the firm intention of the directors to meet all their liabilities as promptly as the condition of the country will admit, even if to do so, it may be necessary to order the collection of all the premium notes.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.
The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.
J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.
THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.
The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.
A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.
The Hoops are covered with 3 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.
All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

TELEGRAPHIC.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.

Connecticut Elections.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—News from the Connecticut elections received here contain returns from Hartford, Greenwich and Norwalk, which gave a combined majority of over one thousand against negro suffrage.

Markets.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Cotton exhibits an upward tendency to-day. 35,000 bales sold at 45½@46. Flour advancing, 5@15 cts higher. Sugars active—Muscovado 13@14 cts. Naval Stores quiet. Petroleum higher—Crude 39@40½. Gold 144½.

Important Indian Treaty.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2 —A special from Lawrance, Kansas, to the Democrat, says that an important treaty had been made with the Osage Indians, about a hundred miles South of there on Friday last. They cede one million acres, for which the Government pays three hundred thousand dollars. Rights of settlers protected by treaty.

A Richmond Paper Suppressed.

The Commercial Bulletine published at Richmond, has been suppressed by military authority, as will be seen from the following:

General Orders No. 119.—Whereas the Commercial Bulletin, a newspaper of this city, in its issue of to-day, has published an article which contains an indecent insult to the memory of the late President of the United States, and to those who surrounded him during his administration of his office, and an almost equally offensive reflection upon His Excellency President Johnson; therefore it is ordered that the license heretofore given by the Provost Marshal-General of this department for the publication of said paper be; and it hereby is, revoked, and that the office of the paper be closed.

The Provos. Marshal of the Department will commit to prison Charles C. P. Dimitry, the writer of said article.

By command of Major-General A. H. TERRY.
EDWARD W. SMITH,
Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

Official: CHARLES H. GRAVES,
oc2—1t Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

The proprietors of the Bulletin make the following announcement to their readers in the Richmond papers of yesterday:

To the Patrons of the Commercial Bulletin:—The subscribers, editor and proprietors of this paper, have to afford you the information, painful to them, that the Commercial Bulletin has been suppressed by the following order of Gen. Terry, &c.

HDQRS. DEPT. OF VIRGINIA,
Sept. 30, 1865.

"Lieutenant-Colonel Albert Ordway, Twenty Fourth Massachusetts Volunteers, Provost Marshal General, Department of Virginia:

"Colonel—The Major General commanding directs that you immediately close the office of the Commercial Bulletin, of this city, taking possession of presses, type, &c., and stationing a guard over them, with instructions to permit no one to enter the rooms where they are without special authority from these headquarters. I have the honor to be, Colonel,

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
ADRIAN TERRY,
Assistant Adjutant General.

It is due to our patrons to say that we have omitted no effort to comply with our contract with them, and they will see from the order reported that the suppression of the paper has resulted from an authority or power which we have had no power to resist.

Respectfully,
BAILEY & WEDDERBURN,
Proprietors.

BALMORAL SKIRTS.—A "fashion" man in New York, who caters for the lady readers of the New York World, says, with thick winter dresses, Balmoral skirts are making their appearance, and will undoubtedly be as extensively worn as ever. The newest styles are in gray, or dark linsey woolsey, bordered with algerine stripes—these are peculiarly adapted for street wear, with suits of aberdeen winsey, which will probably compose the most fashionable of winter walking costumes. There are also very handsome balmoral skirts, made of red-striped saxony cloth, of a very fine quality, bordered with a broad band of plain black velvet. These look extremely well with black silk or black poplin suits.

Stripped black and white skirts are still worn, with a fluting round the bottom, bound on either edge, with black or scarlet braid.

White skirts to be worn under ball and party dresses are deeply bordered with rows of fine tucks, alternating with insertions of cluny guipie.

A CHEERFUL REPORT.—In the release of certain rebel sympathizers in Missouri, on conditions of residing outside the State, they were required to report to the Provost Marshal weekly. One of them recently reported in the following cheerful strain:

To the Provost Marshal, Department of Missouri:

Dear Sir—I am alive and kicking. I am at work on a farm four miles northeast of Quincy, Ill., at the rate of $26 a month, payable in greenbacks. I am at work for a fine old gentleman, and he has a charming daughter. I love her and she says she loves me, so by the next time I "report" I shall probably tell you how I have made it.

THE CHRISTIAN SOLDIER.—Nearly—says the writer of a biographical sketch of the late Stonewall Jackson—were these the last words of that christian soldier:

"Order A. P. Hill to prepare for action! Pass the infantry to the front! Tell Major Hawks to send forward provisions for the men." Then his martial ardor disappeared, a smile diffused itself over his pale features, and he murmured, "Let us cross the river and rest unner the shade of the trees!" It was the river of death he was about to pass; and soon after uttering these words he expired.

The Generals and soldiers are being well cared for throughout the country. In Ohio a General heads the Republican ticket and another General opposes him. In Minnesota, a General leads the Union column; in Iowa, a Colonel. In New Jersey the Democrats have General Runyan as their standard bearer. In Pennsylvania, four gallant soldiers are running for prominent offices. In New York the Democrats have nominated Gens. Slocum and Patrick.

The negro seems to enter largely into the political canvass now going on in Pennsylvania. Both North and South the agitation is kept up, but it is difficult to see how any one is to be benefitted by it.

Holmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu,

For Weakness arising from indiscretion, the enfeebled powers of Nature which are accompanied by so many alarming symptoms, both of body and mind, such as Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory, Wakefulness, Horror of Disease, or Forebodings of Evil, in fact, Universal Lassitude & Prostration, are entirely to overcome the supremacy of society.

The Constitution, enervated with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity ensues.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

In affections peculiar to "Females," is unequaled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulceration or Schirrus State of the Uterus; and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence in, or the decline or change in life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU
AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH,

Will radically exterminate from the system Diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiba and Mercury, in all these diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

In all Diseases of these organs, whether existing in "Male" or "Female," from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparatives of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from Broken down or Delicate Constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect his Bodily Health, Mental Powers, and Happiness.

All the above diseases require the aid of a diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
Is the great Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases, arising from an impure state of the blood and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Ulceration of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin,

AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Not a few of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expells the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy that could be relied on has long been sought for, and now for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

☞THESE EXTRACTS HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO USE IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY, and are also in very general use in all the State HOSPITALS and PUBLIC SANITARY INSTITUTES throughout the land, as well as in private practices, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
